

Friendship Star Quilters Quiltline

August 2004

President's Message

Next Meeting:
August 2, 2004
7:30 PM

Speaker: Kyra Hicks,
"A Quilt for Queen Victoria"

Here I am again, looking at the beginning of a new year when summer has really just begun. Tonight I leave on a trip to Alaska and after the hectic June month I just may sleep the entire time. My daughter's wedding is now over and the foster dog is now living on a 300-acre horse farm just south of Charlottesville, VA, with her new 'mommy', and my other dogs are at the kennel, so the house is really quiet and I can work on the trip. The essentials are packed and I have brought blunt-ended scissors, two embroidery blocks and two precut and ready applique blocks. Because the plane has cramped seats, I have put the hand quilting in the big bag to do on the boat. I also have two silly mysteries with me so I won't get bored on the plane. I have no idea if I have the correct clothing but I do have that sewing. We have a list of quilt shops also. This trip will be fun.

In August I am going to go to Quilt Odyssey (in Hershey this year) and on shorter trips, but I will see you at the August 2 FSQ meeting. The Montgomery County Fair is coming, so make sure you have the 18th of August (Quilt Day at the Fair) marked on your calendars. It was so much fun last year and so productive. Don't forget to enter your quilts so our guild will be well represented at the Fair. Also, don't forget to send in your checks to hold your seats on the bus to the Fort Washington quilt show. I always white glove so I can see the show up close and personal and then shop till my credit card drops. It is surprising how close that date is and fall is coming fast.

I wish you all a productive, busy and restful summer so that we can come back ready to party again. Enjoy your summer!

- Sandy D'Angelo

UPCOMING LECTURES & WORKSHOPS

MONDAY, AUGUST 2 – Kyra Hicks, author of Black Threads, the first comprehensive guide to African American quilt history and contemporary practices, will tell us the story of Martha Ricks. Ms. Ricks spent 50 years saving money to travel to England and present Queen Victoria with a quilt. Did she make it? Come see for yourself at 7:30pm on August 2.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 19 – Barbara Olson, workshop. See description below.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 20 – Lecture by Barbara Olson, "Designing Outside the Lines," understanding your own innate way of creating. Creating with joy and purpose produces wonderful quilts. Think of the energy that great artists exhibit, and the unique artworks they produce. Quilting offers a framework to begin the process, Barbara will help you design outside the lines.

SEPTEMBER - BARBARA OLSON TO TEACH FOR THREE MARYLAND GUILDS!

September 9-10, for Nimble Fingers Guild, "Begin at the End." Quilt borders are often an afterthought. Create a totally integrated small art piece, beginning with a foundation pieced border full of curves and some geometric shapes, then on to the body of the quilt. Machine appliqué and piecing. 9:30-3:30 at the Potomac Community Center, 11315 Falls Road, Potomac, Maryland. $60 for members, $70 for non-members. Contact Janet Wildman to register for class.

September 14, for Annapolis Guild, "Fantasy Flowers." You will make a small quilt starting with one of Barbara's flower drawings to create a "fantasy flower." They can be "kinda like chrysanthemums" but use a wonderful variety of multi-colored shaded fabrics. Batiks, hand dyed, painted or marbled fabric and some novelty flowered fabrics work well, but calicos and solids do not. She will also show you how to use decorative threads to add texture. This should be a wonderful workshop and fun for everyone. 10:00-4:00 at the YWCA of Annapolis, 1517 Ritchie Highway in Arnold. $30 for members, $40 for nonmembers. Contact Jo Aldrich to register for class

September 19, for Friendship Star Quilters, "Cosmic Spirals." Learn how to design and construct magic spirals, and begin a small wall hanging containing two 18" blocks. Many design options will be demonstrated and discussed. Foundation piecing. 9:00-4:00 at the Potomac Community Center, 11315 Falls Road, Potomac, Maryland. $35 for members, $40 for nonmembers. Contact Coralyn Colladay to register. FSQ members may register at guild meetings.

Check out Barbara's website for photos and more info: www.barbaraolsonquiltart.com.

Reminder: FSQ hosts the speaker for dinner at Ruby Tuesday's, Lake Forest Mall, at 5:30 PM, before the guild meeting. All are welcome to join us.

Location of Meetings

Friendship Star Quilters meet at 7:30 PM on the 1st Monday of the Month at the Gaithersburg Church of the Nazarene, 8921 Warfield Road, Gaithersburg, MD.

Workshops are held at Potomac Community Center, 11315 Falls Road, Potomac, MD.

2004 FSQ Challenge Quilts Not Accepted in AQS Nashville Ultimate Guild Challenge

I am sorry to report that our 2004 Challenge quilt entries were not accepted by AQS for the Ultimate Guild Challenge competition in Nashville, TN. Our members took the news graciously and most agreed that we needed to at least try, "nothing ventured, nothing gained". As of this writing most quilts have been returned to their owners. If we have not connected please call me. I'll bring your quilt to the August meeting if you like. Anyone who is going to Nashville, I'd love to hear what was accepted and see photos.

– Nancy Colladay

Thanks Received for Donation
in Memory of Judy Miller

FSQ donated $100 to the Cannon Road Elementary School, Silver Spring, MD, in memory of Judy Miller, who died on April 16 of pancreatic cancer. The Principal of Cannon Road ES sent the following note:

"Thank you so much for your contribution of $100 in memory of Judy Miller. The donation you sent will be applied to our Reading Program Fund.

"Mrs. Miller was a very special lady who graciously gave of her talent and energy to the staff and children of Cannon Road. We truly appreciate the time she spent helping children learn to read, beautifying our courtyard, and volunteering in other capacities whenever there was a need. The children knew she cared for and about them and will all miss her cheerful smile."

- Judith A. Theiss, Ph. D.
Principal, Cannon Road Elem. School

SMALL GROUP COORDINATOR
REQUESTS YOUR HELP

Fellowship, Friendship and Fun makes a Mini Quilt Group. FSQ would like to help the new and current members who are interested in joining or starting a mini group. Please return the "Help us Help All of our Members" survey form (see page 10) at the next FSQ meeting, or mail the form to Nancy Willett.

Come ye to the County Fair!!!
QUILT DAY AT THE FAIR - AUGUST 18

Prepare to have fun and frolic at Quilt Day at the Fair on August 18. We will be in the lovely, sun filled, air-conditioned building right next to the dining hall and great bathrooms. This is the place to be regardless of the weather. Things to bring are a sewing machine and extension cord if you want to sew on bindings, or nothing if you want to tie quilts, baste quilts or just thread needles. If you have a sewing machine to bring you can still tie quilts and let someone else use your machine. For two hours of fun labor, you can get a ticket for a free meal. This is good and yummy. Do come.

FSQ MEMBER FEATURED IN 'PROFESSIONAL QUILTER' MAGAZINE

The current issue (Summer 2004) of The Professional Quilter magazine contains an article written by Lauren Kingsland, FASQ member who lives in Gaithersburg, about exhibiting your work in galleries and juried exhibits.

Lauren recently installed in the Gaithersburg Arts Barn a quilt depicting a sycamore tree which was commissioned by the City of Gaithersburg as a sponsorship recognition piece. Donors to the Arts program for the City get a leaf with their name or corporate logo sewn on.

The Washington County (Hagerstown) Hospital chapel is now brighter by the first of three commissioned quilt pieces created by Lauren to be focal points for this ecumenical meditation space. "Divine Fire" is a kaleidoscopic image in blues and glowing red orange, surrounded by pale blue Thai silk, suggesting the light of inspiration that comes through meditation. The chapel is on the 8th floor of the hospital.

TIME FOR MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL for 2004-2005 YEAR

Memberships expired May 31, 2004. FSQ will continue to accept new member registration and renewals for the coming year. If you register in person, there will be a preprinted form with your current membership information at the Membership table. All you will need to do is verify your information and pay your dues. If you want to register by mail, you can print the form available from the FSQ web site, fill it out and mail it in with your check. Click on "Membership" on the Home Page.

Dues are $20 for the year for regular members; $10 for seniors (age 62+) and $10 for non-residents (outside the MD/DC/VA area). Checks should be made payable to FSQ or Friendship Star Quilters. Only new or renewing members paid by the September 2004 meeting will be included in the directory published in October.

Linda August, Membership Chair

*EAGLE SCOUT BEN FRIEDMANN THANKS FSQ
FOR THE BLANKETS FOR PREMATURE BABIES*

Dear Friendship Star Quilters,
Thank you so much for all of your help with my project. With your help I was able to collect over 450 blankets. As I was counting the blankets, I was so impressed by the amount of detail and attention which all of the blankets exhibited. With your help I know this has been an enormously successful drive.

I have now delivered the majority of the blankets to the hospital and the staff there was also blown away by not just the beauty but the time and care put into the blankets. When I brought the blankets to the hospital, they had none in stock. Moments after bringing them into the ward, the nurses had brought a blanket to every single one of the babies and even used them to decorate the incubators of the babies who could not yet be exposed. Many of the doctors and nurses were brought to tears by the magnitude of your generosity, knowing truly the ordeal that the mothers of these babies must go through, especially when the odds of the baby's survival are often against them.

Thank you very much.

The Blocks of the Month are being collected by Heather Heller and Sandra Chin for tonight's drawing.

Announcements:

Burt White announced that the donation to remember Judy Miller, made to the Cannon Road Elementary School, was recognized by the school. Judy's family would like a few of Judy's quilts finished. Please see Susan Schwarz if you would like to help.

Ben Friedmann spoke again about his Eagle Scout project to provide blankets for premature babies. He thanked us for all the calls of interest in making the quilts for Holy Cross. The Troop and Hospital thank the guild.

The bus trip to Ft. Washington will be on September 18th and will cost $45. The bus will be leaving promptly at 6:45 am, will stop at Sauders on the way and be at the show before noon. We will have dinner on the way home and should arrive back at 10:00 PM. See Chris Zimmerman or Diane Heller to sign up.

Quilt Show Announcements

Coralyn Colladay and Margreta Silverstone are the quilt show chairs for 2005. A few volunteers are needed this summer. Chris Zimmerman is doing workshops with the help of Liz Brodsky. We need recommendations for half day classes by local teachers if anyone has suggestions.

Two people are needed for marketing the raffle quilt. There will be white gloving the quilt at the Ft. Washington Show. Gerda Sherwood needs a volunteer to work with her.

This year publicity is being divided into multiple roles. Nancy Colladay is doing publicity this summer for magazines with a long lead time. Beth Smith is doing the publicity near show time. Nancy Willett and Joyce Rhodes volunteered for adopt-a-shop.

Mary Jo Haczewski, along with Sandy DeLaney and Wendy Bauman, will lead Challenge quilt and needs suggestions for a theme.

Winners of the Block of the month were Burt White, Susan Schwarz, Diane Heller and Patty Hayes.

The end-of-year party was enjoyed by all.

Respectfully submitted,
Liz Brodsky, Outgoing Secretary

BUS TRIP TO FORT WASHINGTON
QUILT SHOW – SEPTEMBER 18

FSQ will be taking a bus trip to the Pennsylvania National Quilt Extravaganza, at the Fort Washington PA Expo Center, on Saturday, September 18. The bus will depart from the Christ the Servant Lutheran Church parking lot at the corner of Montgomery Village Avenue and Centerway.

As in prior years, we will be leaving promptly at 6:45 AM; please arrive by 6:30 AM. We will stop at Sauder’s Fabric Shop in Denver, PA, before the show. Prior to heading home, we will stop for dinner. Both lunch and dinner are self-pay. We will be arriving back in Gaithersburg around 10:00 PM.

The cost for the trip this year is $45, which includes admission to the show and a snack.

Please send your check (made payable to FSQ) to Chris Zimmerman. Reservations must be received by August 31st. For questions, please call Chris Zimmerman or Diane Heller.

GOING TO FORT WASHINGTON?
PUT ON YOUR WHITE GLOVES

Once again FSQ will be able to sell tickets on our raffle quilt at the Fort Washington quilt show. (We made over $600.00 last year.) To do so, the guild must provide 32 hours of “white glovers” on Saturday, September 18, the same day as the bus trip. “White Glovers” are responsible for ensuring that visitors to the show do not touch the quilts. However, the white glove hosts and hostesses are able to touch the quilts, turn them over, and generally get up close and personal. Those of us who have done this before have found it great fun, especially when we can share particularly nice back art with other guests.

A sign up sheet for ticket selling and white gloving will be available at the August and September guild meetings. For more information call Joyce Rhodes or Gerda Sherwood.

QUILTS FOR RACE FOR THE CURE

Last year, ten members of FSQ participated in making and donating quilts to be raffled off to breast cancer survivors at the Komen Maryland Race for the Cure. Our guild was the single largest contributing group, with $720 in auction bids for just our quilts. This year, they have opened up the auction of quilts to all Race participants, as it was so well received last year. Please join me in donating a quilt (lap-size is preferred) to help this very worthy cause. The Race will be October 9, 2004, so I would like to have your quilts by mid-September.

For questions or additional information, please call Kim Jalette.

QUILT SHOW 2005

Save the Date and Other Things: Thank you, FSQ quilters, for the ways you've already stepped forward for the FSQ Quilt Show 2005! Please make sure to mark your calendars for the show, April 22 – 24, 2005.

While the major activities for the quilt show don't begin for a few more months, we want you to know a few things that have been going on over the course of the summer:

The flyers are here and they are gorgeous! Talk to Joyce Rhodes or Nancy Willett to pick up a few. Put one up on your family bulletin board. Tuck one in your purse or bag to have with you if you find yourself talking about quilts and quilt shows with new friends.

Lots of volunteer chair positions are filled! Thanks to all the people whose names appear on the Quilt Show 2005 committee list. This show doesn't happen without your participation. We encourage you to take a look at the list and see if there are committees you'd like to be part of and contact the chairs to help out. There are a few committees still in need of chairs (security, raffle basket, advertising, etc.). Talk to us if you are interested in working in these areas. We have good descriptions of the work to be done, and the gals who headed up the committees last year will be happy to advise you.

The raffle quilt is done! The quilt is being bound and will be entered in the Montgomery County Fair. It'll also be going on road trips to various quilt shows. If you'd like to accompany it or extend its travels, talk to Gerda Sherwood or Joyce Rhodes. If you'd like to start selling raffle tickets, get some tickets from Karen Wolske.

We've found a Featherweight! It is being cleaned up and serviced as we write this. Stay tuned to find out more about this baby machine.

Get your creative juices flowing for the Challenge! Look for the article about the FSQ Show Challenge; this is another challenge where you have a lot of discretion as to what to make. But you have some interesting limitations too! See Wendy Bauman or Sandy Delaney for the challenge fabric. We also have another challenge open to FSQ members and timed for our quilt show. Read more about that on page 7.

If you have any comments, questions or concerns about the FSQ 2005 show, please talk to us, call us, email us. We don't plan to start meeting for the show until later in the fall. So, enjoy your summer and keep quilting!

*FSQ 2005 QUILT SHOW CHALLENGE,
"IT'S A SMALL WORLD"
Chairs: Sandy DeLaney,
Mary Jo Haczewski,
Wendy Bauman*

The challenge is twofold:

- to interpret the show theme
- to incorporate the preselected challenge fabrics

The interpretation of the theme is ALL up to the individual but you MUST follow the challenge guide lines.

The challenge fabrics (all 4) must be incorporated into the top of the quilt in recognizable/visible amounts. You may add any additional fabrics and embellishments that you want to your design.

The FINISHED size must be 42" x 42". This size will allow us to submit entries for the AQS Best Ultimate Guild Challenge and be represented in both Nashville and Paducah if we win.

If you have no clue in what direction to go with the theme, here are a few examples:

- small habitats
- world cultures
- animal kingdoms
- microscopic visions
- miniature blocks
- geographic subjects

We have made the directions for this challenge as simple as possible. We are hoping that we have made this challenge interesting enough for ALL, from the novice to the experienced quilter. We are presenting this to you early in case you need time to collect your thoughts, fabrics, and ideas.

There is a limited amount of challenge fabric kits, so sign-up and purchasing your fabric kits is on a first come basis. We will have the kits available at the August meeting. Your guidelines will be included in the kit. The cost of the challenge fabric kit is $3.00. The deadline will be announced at a later date (close to show time).
