President's Message

Nicki Lynch

Goodbye to an Old Friend

I don't know if you get Quilters Newsletter as I have for years and year, but I was totally caught off guard by the announcement in the Oct/Nov 2016 issue that the QN would cease print publication as of that issue. The website, quiltersnewsletter.com will continue and those with subscriptions will receive Quilting Arts magazine, starting in December.

Quilters Newsletter started in 1969 by Bonnie and George Leman. Bonnie composed the first issue, as so many of us did in those days, on a manual typewriter. As a magazine devoted solely to the art and craft of quilting, Quilters Newsletter was unique for its time. QN was also essential to revitalizing the art of quilting that had fallen out of favor as a pastime and art in the 1960s. QN was devoted to not only to the art of quilt making, but the history of quilts and their creators.

I probably started reading QN in the 1980s, but I occasionally picked up older issues to see what info I could glean from it. I always found QN informative, whether it was about a quilter, a technique or, pattern. I will miss QN. I enjoyed the columnists' essays on the history of quilts or their own history with quilts. I'll miss the variety of patterns and quilt makers featured in each issue. Goodbye QN, see you on your website.

I'm also wishing goodbye to summer. I'm writing this on the equinox with "The summer's almost gone/The winter's tuning up" as Leonard Cohen said. I enjoy fall the best, with the crisp weather and apples, the smell of pumpkin spice in the air, and making fall and winter quilts. I hope everyone has a pleasant summer and is looking forward to come cool weather. It's a good reason to stay in and make quilts.

I'm also looking forward to spring 2017 as Friendship Star will be having a quilt show. It's a great time to hang out with people you might have seen at meetings, but don't know well. It's a chance to volunteer – several positions are still open – and make the show happen. The Show is also an opportunity to show off your latest quilting project as well as selling items that you make in the Boutique. Don't forget we also have a silent auction of quilts and quilting projects. This is a good way to let your extra quilts go to a good home.

This year Friendship Star Quilt Guild needs to reach out to more local quilters, as our ranks are getting a bit thin. We need to spread the word that the guild is for quilters of all skill levels and the April show is a great place to do that. Over the next few months I'd like to brainstorm with everyone on how to interest more people in joining the Guild. So, let's make the upcoming show a good one.

Quilt Show Update

Dottie Acton

We are excited to kick off the next FSQ Quilt Show and held our first meeting September 27th at Dottie Acton's house. (Thanks Dottie for hosting!) We have a great team of volunteers and a lot of experience to make for a wonderful show. We have a few slots open and hope you will consider helping out. If you've never done it before, no worries, we have the ongoing "Mentor" program in place to assist!!

Our most urgent need this month is for someone to volunteer to coordinate our Raffle Quilt ticket sales at Capital Quilts during Quilters Quest, Nov 4-13. If you are willing to lead this effort, please contact Dottie Acton. Other committee chair positions that are still open are:

- Advertising for the Catalog
- Catalog
- Challenges
- Publicity/Media
- Quilt Marketing

If you want to learn more about any of these, contact Connie Ross or Dottie Acton

We are currently soliciting proposals for the 2017 Guild Challenge. If you have an idea for our challenge, please write up your proposal and sent it to Nicki Lynch or Connie Ross. We want to get this underway as soon as possible so you have plenty of time to work on your challenge quilts before the show.

We are also soliciting proposals for the 2018 Opportunity Quilt. Please think on it and send proposals to Connie or Dottie.

The next committee meeting will be a conference call on October 25th, at 7PM. Connie Ross will distribute the number to committee members.

A huge thank you to everyone who has volunteered to help get ready for our 2017 show. Here's the list of committee chairs as of Sept 27.

See the quilt show committee members on the next page.

2016/2017 Programs

By JoAnne DuChes

I hope you will all be at the October meeting to hear Heather Kojan demystify quilt math. Her lecture is Quilt Math: Triangles, Wedges and a little Fibonacci for fun!

I don't know about you, but my brain freezes whenever I'm asked to confirm a math calculation of any sort. I've always twisted my numbers and words around, so was never very stellar at any math.

Heather is the founder and first president of the Baltimore Modern Quilt Guild. She teaches and lectures both locally at shops and guilds, and nationally with the Original Sewing and Quilt Expo. She is a contributing author to the book Classic Modern Quilts.

Heather has designed quilt blocks published in Quiltmaker's 100 Blocks. Most recently, she was honored to have a quilt featured in The Improv Handbook for Modern Quilters by Sherri Lynn Wood.

Take a look at Heather's gallery of quilts on her website at heatherkojan.com.

The Guild will host a dinner for the lecturer on Monday evening at 5:30 before the meeting. The Guild dinners are held at DogFish Head Alehouse, 800 West Diamond Ave., Gaithersburg, MD, 20878, phone: 301-963-4847.

Below is a list of programs scheduled for the upcoming meetings in the 2016-17 year.

Please renew your annual FSQ membership at the October 3 meeting to ensure that your information appears in the Annual FSQ Directory. This directory is sent via email to all paid members of the guild toward the end of October.

In the rush of so many members renewing memberships at the last couple of meetings, I did not give out current membership cards to everyone who renewed. If I did not give you your card, please stop by the Membership table at the meeting on October 3.

Keep current with Facebook!

Suma Glassman and Ellen Robinson

Did you know that FSQ has a Facebook page? If you are on FB, why not like our page: <https://www.facebook.com/FriendshipStarQuilters/> And if you aren't on Facebook, the page is "public" so you can still view it just by going to the link. We will be posting meeting reminders and other items deemed of interest to you. If there is something you think might be good information to others, quilt related of course, contact us, the page administrators, and we will get it posted.

Because we are publishing our newsletters on our Web Site, we will no longer publish personal information such as addresses, phone numbers and personal e-mail addresses. All of the e-mail links for officers and committee chairs/members in the newsletter are directed to an FSQ e-mail address.

FSQ Library News

Jennifer Rossmere

I want to give a big welcome to Rosie Hormuth who has graciously agreed to be the new FSQ Librarian. I am so glad she will take over this job and I know the library is in good hands.

Thanks to all of you for your help and support as I took on my first job within FSQ. I will continue to be excited by all the possibilities within our library and I hope you will continue to take advantage of the wealth of information contained in those boxes.

The FSQ website has a list of all the books in our library. If you would like me to find a particular book for you, please send me an e-mail and we will have it ready for you at the next meeting.

Also, we welcome your ideas for new books. Let me know if there is a book that you would like to see as part of our library or a certain topic that is not covered by our current books. Please e-mail me with your suggestions at library@friendshipstar.org.
