Executive Board Meeting

The next Executive Board Meeting is via Zoom on Monday, Oct 21st at 7:00 pm.

If you have a topic to bring up to the board, please contact any of the officers to add your item to the agenda, or to receive the Zoom link for the meeting.

President's Message

Anne Flaggs

Hello, Quilters and welcome to September. Hard to believe that summer is almost over but we still have a few more weeks of warm weather before Fall arrives. It's going to be an exciting year with lots of great programs; a Quilt Show and several challenges to keep us busy for a while.

Just a few items from me:

- We will be hosting a hybrid meeting again. Look for an email a few days before our meeting with the Zoom link if you plan to call in.
- Thanks to Carmen Contreras-Sesvold, Colleen Biasco, Trish McTighe and Joy Dorman for ensuring that our yearly financial audit has been completed. There were no findings.
- This is the last month to renew your membership if you want to be included in the annual roster.
- We could use some help welcoming newer members and introducing them to FSQ. If you have time before the meeting and see someone who might need help navigating the lobby and our meetings, introduce yourself and show them around.
- Be sure to pick up this year's quilt raffle tickets in the lobby before the meeting.
- Summer Log Jam challenge quilts are due in October.
- We still need a raffle quilt team to prepare our 2025-2026 quilt, let me know if you have some ideas and are interested.
- The Quilt Show is 8 months away, we have some open committee positions, consider volunteering and helping out.
- Laura Marcus will be selling tickets to the Nimble Fingers Bingo on Sunday, September 22. Look for her in the lobby to get your ticket and support this guild.

That's all from me, hope to see you at the next meeting.

Anne

Guild Meeting Minutes - August

Harriett Sheinson

The meeting was called to order by President Anne Flagg at 7:35 pm.

There was one guest, Sally, and she was welcomed.

The minutes of the June meeting were accepted with no changes.

Highlights from The Quiltline were as follows:

1. 2025-26 raffle quilt still needs a team to coordinate creation
2. Quilt Show organization is coming soon. Look to the fall for more activity
3. Montgomery County Fair is from 8/9 to 8/17. Senior day is Tuesday, August 13. Admission is free if you are 62 or older. Make sure to see our 2025 raffle quilt and check to see if it won a ribbon.
4. The Executive Board's next meeting is Monday 8/12 at 7pm on Zoom. If you wish to attend, please let Anne Flagg know.
5. Interesting article about Wrapping the World with Quilts to support Ukraine and encouraging us to make a quilt block for Hope and Peace.
6. Nimble Fingers is holding a Quilt Bingo in September.

Raffle Quilt 2025: Thanks to Karen Kehl and everyone involved in creating this masterpiece. The charity chosen by the executive board is the Children's Inn at NIH which was a favorite charity of Karen Kehl's late husband. Since this is a group decision of the whole guild, a vote for IN FAVOR with no objections was obtained.

Raffle tickets should be available at the September meeting for everyone to sell.

Raffle Quilt 2024: The top 3 sales winners were Amy McNamara, Judy Hoffman and Suma Glassman. Proceeds from the quilt were about $2,100 net. FSQ donated $500 to A Wider Circle that was doubled by a matching grant.

The June Yard Sale made over $3,200. Thank you to all who helped and shopped.

The 2023/24 Audit of the Financials was completed in June by Carmen Contreras-Sesvold and Colleen Biasco. No issues were identified.

Committee Reports/Announcements:

Membership – Lynn Stieber/Carrie Horton reminded those in attendance that the dues are due in September and are $35.

Retreat: Colleen Biasco reported that there were only 8 seats left. Please sign up fast before they go.

Programs

Stacy Ross and Judy Walsh

In September we'll be hosting Pat and Arlan Christ who will be sharing "Pennsylvania Dutch Quilts...Folklore & Superstitions". They have been exhibiting, collecting and obtaining knowledge about the heritage of antique quilts since 2008. You can learn more about them here.

Our speaker in October will be Erin Grogan - a pattern designer and founder of Love Sew Modern. Erin will be presenting the evolution of wearable art and will share different methods for applying our own artistic style to our wardrobes.

FSQ Pins for Sale

Linda Belecki

Pins will again be available for purchase at our in-person meetings. FSQ Guild Pins are $5.00 and our Show Pins are $1.00.

I hope you will consider adding a pin or two to your collection.

Service Projects Update

Nance Brennan and Anne Weaver

Wonderful news to announce!!! Service Projects is again partnering with Ryan's Case for Smiles to collect pillowcases for area children who are hospitalized or are otherwise in need of some cheer. Kathy Haynes, the new local coordinator, is excited to add Friendship Star Quilters to the list of donors. You can read all about the Baltimore chapter here <https://caseforsmiles.org/baltimore/>.

A reminder from Ryan's Case for Smiles...please use 100% cotton fabric, no embellishments or glitter and be sure to wash in unscented detergent, iron and seal in an individual zip-loc bags. Please finish the seams by using a French seam, serging or zigzagging. If fabrics were pre-washed, please re-wash after finishing. We are always conscious of these children's compromised immune systems.

You are welcome to use your own fabric stash, or you can pick up a kit (or two!) at any in-person FSQ meeting. We will be out in the foyer during registration and break with kits and directions, if you need them. Stop by and say hi!

Service Projects workshops in September will be held on Thursdays, September 19 and 26. We meet from 9:30 am until noon, at Fairhaven United Methodist Church, 12801 Darnestown Road (Route 28), about a mile west of Quince Orchard High School. See you there. Bring a friend.

Log Jam Challenge

JoAnne DuChez

Hi, All. I hope you have been busy working on your challenge quilt. Time is starting to run out. Only 1 more month to finish up your projects. Hopefully, your progress has been enjoyable. I did have a little problem – I lost my challenge quilt top. It took a couple of weeks to find it. Of course, it was in the last place I looked. Hiding behind a small shelving unit. Now it is sandwiched and waiting to be quilted. Like I said, only a month to go so I also must get busy!

The quilt size may be 40" square to twin size. Quilts must be sandwiched, quilted and bound. All challenge quilts will be donated to Service Projects for distribution.

Finished quilts are due at the October meeting by 7:15. Voting will take place before the meeting and during the first 5 minutes of the break.

Yard Sale Bucks will be awarded to the three quilts with the most votes.

We can't wait to see what your imaginative spirits create. Have fun and good luck!

FSQ Raffle Quilt Ticket Sales

Karen Moss

We have begun to sell raffle tickets for our 2025 Raffle Quilt, Quilter's Rainbow. It's a lovely quilt in bright rainbow colors on a black background with beautiful quilting. The raffle drawing will take place at the June 2, 2025 FSQ Guild meeting and a portion of the profits will go to our chosen charity this year which is the Children's Inn at NIH. The quilt design was created by Karen Kehl, the quilt was pieced by many members of our guild and longarm quilted by Barbara Bean.

Along with selling raffle tickets when we take the raffle quilt to other guilds, we also ask each FSQ member to either sell or purchase 15 tickets. Although participation in the raffle quilt ticket sales is voluntary, this is a major source of funding for the Guild and your support is appreciated. Tickets are $2 per ticket or 3 tickets for $5. If you buy all your own tickets, it's only $25.

I will be in the lobby at the September FSQ meeting with envelopes of 15 tickets for all guild members. Please come and see me so you can get your envelope with the raffle tickets, a letter explaining the process and a picture of the raffle quilt. The ticket stubs and money are to be returned to me at a guild event. If you want additional tickets, I will have those as well.

The seller of the winning ticket and the top three ticket sellers will be rewarded with a prize. I look forward to your support for this endeavor which supports all the guild activities. Please let me know if you have any questions.

FSQ Raffle Quilt Marketing

Judy Hoffman

This year we are again planning to take our raffle quilt to visit other guilds. Last year we were able to go to the following guilds: Bethesda Quilters, Cluster Spires, Faithful Circle of Quilters Guild, Nimble Fingers, Needle Chasers, Mother Seton Parish Quilting Angels, and Four County Quilters.

If you would like to volunteer to take the raffle quilt to one of these guilds, please contact me.

I don't have dates set up yet but would contact any volunteers when I know dates and times. If there are other guilds you think we should contact, please let me know. I plan to be at the September FSQ meeting.

2025 FSQ Quilt Show Trish McTighe

Show Dates: April 25,26,27, 2025

Set-up: Thursday April 24, 2025

Asbury Methodist Village, Rosborough Cultural Arts and Wellness Center
301 Odendhal Ave, Gaithersburg, MD 20877

Please add the Celebration of Quilts dates to your calendar. As your 2025 Quilt Show Co Chair, I am pleased to announce along with Co-Chair, Anne Flaggs, that we have filled most of the committee chairs to staff the 2025 Quilt Show. We are grateful to those who have taken the same or similar positions from previous shows and we welcome new chairs who will contribute to the success of our QS.

We still have a few open positions in Demos, Hospitality, Publicity, Quilt Challenge, Staging and Outdoor Signs. Contact Trish or Anne for more information.

The first meeting of the Quilt Show committee chairs and all interested members will be held on Monday, September 23 at 7:00 PM at the Asbury Meeting Room at the Villas, 400 Russell Ave, Gaithersburg, MD. We will be discussing quilt show changes, the boutique, the silent auction, social media outreach and the yard sale.

HERE ARE SOME THINGS FOR ALL FSQ MEMBERS TO DO TO SUPPORT THE SHOW:

- If you haven't already, please start now on your quilts for the show. Quilted items such as clothing, wall hangings, table runners or bags are also eligible.
- Begin thinking about what you could make for the Boutique. These can be any quality craft items. In the past, pottery, jewelry, note cards and cat toys have been popular, as well as placemats, bowl cozies, table runners and other quilted items.
- Start to identify and make things that can be sold at the Silent Auction. This is another important fund-raising effort for our guild

Results of the FSQ Zoom Sip and Sew Survey

Out of more than 100 FSQ members only 25 responded. Of those 25, 9 respondents indicated that they were interested in Zoom Sip and Sew. 4 preferred to meet in the daytime and 5 in the evenings. The anticipated frequency of attendance was 6 occasionally, 2 occasionally to frequently, and one frequently. Based on these responses, it seems interest is really low and continuing with these sessions is not reasonable.

There were a couple of suggestions. One was to have everyone work on a small project together, such as an ornament, bag or service project quilt. The other was to solicit suggestions for a technique or item that people would like to learn more about. Ask members with expertise to volunteer to speak. Alternatively, do a bimonthly challenge based on topics.

I may send out another survey including these suggestions to see if they would significantly impact interest in Zoom sessions.

FSQ Best Beginner's Award

Anne Flagg

Did you make it to the Montgomery County Agricultural Fair this year? I did and had a great time looking at all the quilts and everything in the 4H building, enjoyed my free ice cream and watched the cows being judged.

Each year FSQ presents an award for the Best Beginner's Quilt at the Fair. The judging is done by the Fair's judges, not by FSQ. The winner receives a check for $25.00, a free one-year membership in our guild and an invitation to bring their quilt to our next in-person meeting.

This year's winner was Ann Manyin. I didn't get a chance to meet her but a picture of her award-winning quilt is shown on the left. We're hoping she will join us at our September meeting!

Library News

Rosie Hormuth and Liz Lawrence

The FSQ library has a wonderful variety of books available to inspire your quilting projects. Books are available for one month loan to be returned at the following in-person meeting. Just sign and date the card found inside the back cover, leave the card with us, and let your creativity flow!

If you have a particular book you would like to see added to the library selections, please let us know. Suggestions are welcome.

Tips & Tricks

Judy Walsh

For those of you who enjoy foundation paper piecing, check out this website for a colorful free chart that will help you easily change the size of the blocks you want to create.

If you do reduce or enlarge your patterns, don't forget that your $\frac{1}{4}$ " seam allowances will also be reduced or enlarged on the new pattern pieces, so be sure to trim them accurately when you cut them out.

I encourage you to browse her shop while you're there – Juliet has some wonderful patterns!

In Memoriam

The quilting community lost a dynamic quilter in August: Freddy Moran.

A heartfelt tribute to Freddy was shared by her longtime friend, Jennifer Sampou. You can read it here.

It must have been amazing to have Freddy as a friend.
