Executive Board Meeting

The next Executive Board Meeting will be via Zoom on Feb 10th at 7:00 pm.

If you have a topic to bring to the board, please contact any of the officers to add your item to the agenda or to receive the Zoom link for the meeting.

President's Message

Anne Flaggs

Hello Quilters,

I hope you are enjoying the winter weather and some warmer days now that the cold snap is giving us a break. I've been in Florida most of January so missed most of the fun, snow and cold but the weather here hasn't been that wonderful until this week. Anyway, it will be nice to see you on Zoom for our meeting on Monday.

February is a great chance to do some quilting. We have the retreat coming up soon where I will have 4 days to just sew and hopefully get caught up and almost finished with the quilts I want to put into the show in April. One needs binding, one needs a bit more and one is almost ready to send off the Longarmer. And of course I'm going to start working on my challenge quilt for the FSQ challenge "Life's a Beach". I hope you find time to quilt this month and I encourage you to submit at least one quilt into the show. There is still time to get stuff done, Quilt registration ends in mid-March but you have until Quilt Turn in to get them fully finished.

Have you been thinking about volunteering to work on the program committee? We are still looking for some folks to help with this important job for the Guild. Judy Walsh and Stacy Ross would like to have someone shadow them for the rest of this year and help choose the speakers for next year. Please consider stepping up to help out.

We will be having an executive board meeting on Monday, February 10th at 7pm. If you are interested in attending, please let me or another officer know and we will send you the Zoom link. We always appreciate your ideas and suggestions to improve the guild.

Thanks, and see you on Zoom.

Anne

Guild Meeting Minutes – January

Harriet Sheinson

Social time started at 7 p.m.

7:30 p.m. Anne Flaggs, President, welcomed everyone and our new member. There were no guests.

The December minutes were accepted.

The Executive Board meeting for February was announced. If anyone wishes to attend, please let Anne know so that she can send the zoom link.

Anne reviewed the recent Quiltline and announced that new program chairs are needed. Service Projects donated 300 quilts for half a year.

Trish McTighe spoke about the Quilt Show and the boutique and that the next committee meeting would be Jan. 22 on zoom at 7 p.m. Everyone is most welcome.

Judy Walsh reported that the Quilt Show registration is on line and the link is on the website. If one is entering a quilt, you will need a description of the quilt and that the forms are in a Google form but if you need help contact her.

Mary Ann Bruce mentioned her concern about the space for the yard sale allocation. She hopes that large pieces of fabric will be coming in as well as current patterns. Collection will start at in the in-person March meeting.

Peggy Weidman spoke about the Quilt Show Boutique. Registration for this will start in January with a submission of a form that will be on the website. There is a $5 charge to register with the form and anyone selling in the boutique will need to help run it during the show. If you have 10 items or less, you need to work 2 hours; more than 10 pieces, the work time will be 3 hours.

Raffle Quilt chair Judy Hoffman is going to have surgery and announced that Mary Jean Spencer will be temporarily taking over for her. Judy mentioned that the quilt will be taken to 4 County Quilters; Milltown Quilters; Nimble Fingers and Needle Chasers. If you are available to take the quilt and sell tickets, please let her know.

Lynn Stieber is in charge of demonstrations at the Quilt show and asked for volunteers to demonstrate a quilting form or a handcraft for a short time at the show.

7:50 p.m. Our program – Pojagi – from ancient Korea to modern Canada. This is a traditional Korean art form and was presented by Elizabeth DeCroos from Epida Studio in Canada. This was a fascinating needle arts form that is very old and was well presented.

The Quiltline – February 2025

8:46 p.m. Judy Walsh presented Show and Tell which was delightful.

The door prize was won by Susan Horton.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:20 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Harriet Sheinson, Corresponding Secretary

Registering Vehicles at Asbury

When we meet at Asbury beginning in March, we'll need to register our vehicles each time we enter the campus, so Asbury Security will be able to contact the owner if there is a problem.

You can scan the QR code below to register your vehicle each day you come to a guild meeting or to our quilt show. Or you can give your vehicle information to the person at the gatehouse.

Asbury Visitor & Vendor

All patrons visiting Asbury MUST register their vehicle each time they visit our campus.

Please scan the QR Code with your phones camera and fill out the pre-registration.

OR

A gatehouse associate can enter your information upon your arrival.

The address to use for your GPS driving directions is 301 Odendhal Ave., Gaithersburg, MD

In March and April our meetings will be held in the community room at the Rosborough Center. After that we will meet in the Hefner Auditorium.

Programs

Stacy Ross and Judy Walsh

In February, teacher and lecturer Vicki Conley will present Inspired by the Parks, explaining how she uses photos and her imagination to create beautiful graphic-art-style quilts. Her inspiration comes from her travels to 53 national parks and countless wildlife refuges, monuments, and other historic or cultural sites. Vicki offers both on-demand and Skillshare classes, so check out her website and get inspired!

In March, we will be meeting at Asbury Methodist Village for the first time - in the community room of the Rosborough building. That's the same building (and room) where we held our 2023 Quilt Show. The staff at the gate can direct you to the building if you need assistance finding it. The address is 301 Odendhal Ave, Gaithersburg.

At our March meeting, Sammie Hatton will deliver a presentation titled Historical Quilts of Montgomery County. As the Collections Manager for the Montgomery County Historical Society, Sammie will share historical quilts within the society's collection. While some quilts date back to the 1800s, all are being preserved for future generations.

REMINDER!

We need 2 volunteers to become Program co-chairs after our term is up May 31st. We'll be starting to contact potential speakers for our 2025-26 business year in January and February. You'll be ahead of the game if you start to shadow some of this process now. Please contact Stacy and Judy at programs@friendshipstar.org with questions or if you are willing to take on this position.

As always, we welcome suggestions for new speakers from our members!

Service Projects Update

Nance Brennan and Anne Weaver

We hope everyone was able to stay safe and warm during the recent frigid weather and had some extra time to sew and quilt. It looks like a welcome stretch of warmer weather is coming and hopefully will be here to stay!

The whole guild is gearing up for our April quilt show. The committees are hard at work and FSQ members are busily sewing the quilts they want to hang in the show. The gorgeous quilts that our members completed for Service Projects for last summer's Log Jam Quilt Challenge have all been registered and will be proudly displayed at the show before being donated to hospitals and agencies in the county. If you DO NOT want your quilt displayed, please contact Anne Weaver or Nance Brennan by February 10 and we will remove your registration. If you want a sneak peek at the challenge quilts, visit the FSQ website and click on the Photo Gallery tab. They're gorgeous!

Please join us, if you can, for our February Service Projects workshops on Thursday, February 13 and Thursday, February 20, from 9:30 until noon, at Fairhaven United Methodist Church, 12801 Darnestown Road (Route 28), a mile from Quince Orchard High School. You can also drop off donations for the April Yard Sale, which will be held this year at the quilt show, at the Service Projects workshops in February and March.

For more information, contact Nance Brennan or Anne Weaver. Thanks, as always, for your support.

Will You Step Up and Help Your Guild?

Stacy Ross and Judy Walsh have been serving as the guild's Program Committee co-chairs for almost 3 years, but they will be stepping down at the end of this business year (May 31).

We've been asking for volunteers to replace them for several months, and the lack of response is concerning.

Are you worried you aren't qualified for the position or are too new to the guild to take on the role? Don't be! Stacy joined the program committee just a few months after joining the guild and found it a wonderful way to get more involved and get to know other members better.

We need a couple of enthusiastic volunteers to take their place! Scheduling speakers for our 2025-26 business year will begin in February, and it would be a great time for the new co-chairs to "shadow" Stacy and Judy to see what's involved. There will also be a meeting at Asbury in mid/late February to learn how to use their audio/visual system.

Please answer the call and agree to co-chair the Programs Committee! The new co-chairs will receive detailed documentation explaining all phases of this job. And Stacy, Judy and others who have been co-chairs in the past will also be ready and willing to answer questions to help you be successful.

Feel free to reach out to Stacy or Judy directly if you'd like more information or are willing to become a co-chair!

“Life’s a Beach!”

Can you believe our quilt show is just a couple of months away? We are hoping to see lots of entries in our beach-themed quilt challenge! Trade your snow boots and heavy coats for daydreams of sand between your toes as you sew something special and beachy for our challenge display.

As a reminder, the finished quilt should be between 20-25 inches on each side. Use the beach theme to inspire you – whether it’s your color palette, your fabric choices, your block design, or your inspiration for a collage or art quilt. Let the sights and sounds of the beach ignite your creativity as you work on your quilt!

The entries will be displayed together at the quilt show and will be eligible for Viewer’s Choice prizes in the “Guild Challenge” category. Your quilt will need to be finished in time to turn in for our April 2025 quilt show, but you will need to be ready to submit photos of it for registration no later than March 15th.

We can’t wait to see what everyone comes up with!

Quilt Show Yard Sale

Lorie Coston, Mary Ann Bruce and Carmen Contreras-Sesvold

As we are not meeting in person in February, donation collections will be on hold until the March 2025 meeting.

The Sign-Up Genius list for volunteering is in progress. As this year's sale will be held in a long hallway at Asbury, the sale area will be smaller than in the past and will require fewer volunteers during Quilt Show hours. We will need volunteers, and their vehicles, to retrieve the items stored at Gerda's and to deliver them to Asbury. Help with set-up on Thursday and closing on Sunday will also be included for sign up.

Please consider donating the items listed below to the Yard Sale.

Items we accept are:

- Quilting fabric and batting (no upholstery fabric please)
- Quilting patterns (no garment patterns please)
- Books on quilting, published within the last 10 years
- Projects started but not finished/UFOs
- Panels and kits
- Quilting notions (rulers, thread, needles, rotary cutters, etc.)
- Sewing machines or irons in working order

We are accepting donations at:

- Our March 2025 meeting. We will have cars parked by the entrance doors so you can drop your goodies right in.
- Donations may be brought to Service Projects and our volunteers will make sure they are delivered to us.
- Arrangements for large donations can be made by contacting Carmen Contreras-Sesvold. (her information is in the directory)

There will be more details to follow! If you are interested in volunteering with us or have any questions, please consult the directory for our contact information.

Your Yard Sale Co-Chairs,

Lorie Coston, Mary Ann Bruce and Carmen Contreras-Sesvold

Quilt Show Volunteers – We Need You!

Anne Flaggs

Hopefully by now, you have heard we are having a quilt show. We can't pull it off without the guild members volunteering during the show at the various stations to help sell tickets, white glove and do other jobs. We recommend that everyone does at least 1 shift of 2-2.5 hours apiece to ensure we have full coverage at the show. Anyone doing at least 2 shifts of work will be in the drawing for the volunteer raffle basket (s) that we will give away at the May meeting.

Sometime in February, all the jobs will be posted in Sign-up Genius so you can find the right slot and time that fits your needs but I wanted to give a quick outline of the jobs to help you decide where you might want to work.

- Turn-in – this will occur the Wednesday before the show and lasts about 3 hours. Jobs include checking in quilts and sorting them into groups to ease the setup.
- Setup (Thursday) – this is an active job and is the actual hanging of quilts and transforming the room into a spectacular show. This is a long day but we will accept help for shifts that fit into your schedule.
- Admissions – mostly a sit-down station that can be busy especially when the show opens for the day. The first greeters to our show, money is taken for tickets, handouts are distributed and wristbands placed on the visitors. Also oversees the children's peek & seek activities.
- Boutique – mostly a sit-down job checking out purchases from visitors but also helping to organize the display as items are sold throughout the show. Members with items in the boutique are required to work at the boutique.
- Raffles
 - Quilt – a sit-down job selling tickets to our beautiful raffle quilt that will be displayed
 - Baskets – a sit-down job selling tickets to our basket drawings
 - Featherweight – an active sit-down job selling tickets for our featherweight drawing and sewing charity projects
- Silent Auction – a sit-down job overseeing all the items up for auction and their sign-up sheets
- Service Projects – an active sit-down job helping visitors tie charity quilts
- White Gloving – an active walking job and a good chance to see the show while you assist visitors by pointing out interesting facts on quilts

The Quiltline – February 2025

- Yard Sale – an active job as it will be both organizing the items for sale and checking out purchases made by visitors. This is new to our 2025 show.
- Take-down (Sunday)– an active job helping to take down the quilts and return them to our members. This will take about 2 hours and starts about 10 minutes after our show ends on Sunday.

If your spouses or older kids want to work the show, that is fine also, we have a few that like to help with setup/takedown. Kids that need Service hours for school can earn hours by volunteering. Most of the jobs are sitting down, except for White Gloving. If you can only stand/walk for 1 hour and would like to White Glove just let me know and we can work something out.

A True-Blue Quilt for a True-Blue President Michele Barnard

Friends, our amazing President Anne Flagg has requested simple blue and white blocks for her president's quilt. A tutorial is below.

I will also have some pre-sewn blocks available at our in-person spring meetings for people to pick up and sign.

ANY blue is acceptable. ANY white is also OK, although - since white-on-white can be difficult to write on - you might want to stick to plain white.

1. Cut a square of blue fabric at least 6 inches on each side and cut it in half diagonally.
2. Cut a strip of white 2 inches by 12 inches

The Quiltline – February 2025

3. Sew the blue triangles to the white strip, centering them on the white so there is some overhang as in the previous photo.

4. Trim the block to 6.5 inches square, centering the white strip.

5. Ta-dah! Your block is ready to sign and turn in!

If you have any questions, just contact me, Michele Barnard.

Library News

Rosie Hormuth and Liz Lawrence

For those members who have been able to attend the in-person Monday evening FSQ meetings, you already know the FSQ Library is closing.

Over recent years we have seen a growing interest in on-line quilting instructions and the availability of a huge variety of free online patterns and projects, leaving little need for a paper library. Additionally, with our move to Asbury Village, there is no space to store our collection.

For these reasons, the remaining books will be offered to you for a small donation. Come see us at the March and April in-person meetings for the final close-out.

If you are in possession of a loaned book and would like to keep it, we will accept financial donations at the Monday guild meetings. Please return to us any books you do not wish to retain.

Thank you for your interest over the years.

Rosie and Liz

Editor's note: Did you know that Rosie and Liz have been caring for our library since 2017?
Be sure to thank them for their many years of service!

Tips & Tricks

Ellen Robinson

Over time, I have learned lots of non-quilting notions can be used in quilting or other sewing. I thought you might like to have a look:

1. Crayola Ultra Washable Markers.

They are good for marking a quilting design and will wash out after. I would wash the marks out as soon as possible, as I don't know if they would become permanent over time. My experience is that they do wash out if you wash within the week: I have not waited longer than that.

2. Post-its. They are great for marking in a pattern where you left off without leaving written marks. Also, they are handy for creating a 'bumper' for a 1/4" seam allowance.

3. Pool Noodles are wonderful for storing a small quilt, rolled up. Just be sure to roll it right-side out so that any wrinkles that happen are on the back side. You can extend the length of the noodle by combining 2 with a dowel glued into the 2nd of 2 noodles. And you can cut the extra with a serrated knife (not the quilt, the noodle). This idea came from one of our speakers many years ago.

4. Wooden Chopsticks, slightly sharpened to a dull point, make great 'corner pusher outters' when you are turning out bag parts and such. They also make good 'awls' for that extra finger near the machine needle or near the hot iron.

5. Knitting Needle protectors make marvelous scissor point protectors for your embroidery scissors.

6. Tiny Terry PonyTail Holders (ouchless type) are so useful for taming the thread end on your bobbin while it's being stored.

7. Silicone or Plastic mascara brushes make quick work of de-linting your bobbin area. You can buy them in bulk from Amazon.

8. A small pencil box or pouch is wonderful for setting yourself up with a small notions carry kit for when you take a class or go to a sit and sew. I seem to have doubles of a lot of my frequently used notions, so it was easy for me to collect them into my little zippered pouch.
