Executive Board Meeting

The next Executive Board Meeting will be via Zoom on April 14th at 7:00 pm.

If you have a topic to bring to the board, please contact any of the officers to add your item to the agenda or to receive the Zoom link for the meeting.

President's Message

Anne Flaggs

Hello Quilters,

I can't believe it's March already, February went by so fast. I'm also enjoying this warm spell we are currently in, it's a nice break from the constant cold.

I had a great time at the retreat and I'm looking forward to next year. I did get a lot of sewing done but still have to work on all of my quilts for the show in April. I did finally register them so the pressure is on to reach the finish line and I know I will make it.

I hope you are all getting ready for the Quilt Show coming up in late April at Asbury Methodist Village in Gaithersburg. I encourage you to enter at least one quilt in the show. Remember, if there are no quilts, then there is no show. And please sign up to volunteer. A show like this takes many, many hours, and if everyone helps, it is easier for all of us. It is also a great way to get to know guild members that you may have seen and greeted, but not really become friends with or worked beside.

Have you been thinking about volunteering to work on the program committee? We are still looking for some folks to help with this important job for the Guild. Judy Walsh and Stacy Ross would like to have someone shadow them for the rest of this year and help choose the speakers for next year. Please consider stepping up to help out.

A member has gifted the guild a beautiful quilt for our 2026 raffle quilt. We are in need of someone to organize the custom quilting, appraisal and binding. If you are interested in helping with this task or are a longarm quilter willing to help with the custom quilting, please let me know. By the way, we still are in need of ideas for our 2027 quilt which we would like to have the guild create. Ideas anyone?

The guild needs three volunteers for the nominating committee. This is a short-term commitment to solicit nominees for the board of directors and nominees need to be in place by the start of our fiscal year in June. We are in need of a Vice President and Secretary for the new fiscal year. If you are interested in being on this committee or holding an office, please let me know.

Thanks and see you in person on March 3rd at our new location. Please try to come early to get thru gate security, find a parking place and walk to the community room in the Rosborough Building.

Guild Meeting Minutes – February

Harriet Sheinson

7:30 pm Anne Flaggs, President, called the meeting to order. There were no guests or new members.

There were no changes to the January minutes and they were approved unanimously.

The next Exec. Board meeting will be Feb. 10 at 7pm. If you are not a member of the Exec. Board and would like to attend the meeting, please let Anne Flaggs know and she will send out a link.

Anne mentioned the need for additional ideas for a Raffle quilt for our next fundraiser.

Our next meeting is back in person and we will meet at Asbury Methodist Village, in the Rosborough community room. Plan on arriving a bit early to get thru security, park and find the room.

Anne reviewed The Quiltline as follows: Raffle Basket Needs, Boutique, Silent Auction and Yard sale as well as the FSQ Challenge. We are in need of program chairs for next year as Judy and Stacy are retiring from this committee. Service projects was highlighted as well as the annual retreat.

Committee Reports/Announcements:

Trish McTighe, co-chair of the Quilt Show mentioned that volunteers who put in four hours or more will be eligible for a drawing to win the volunteer basket. There are still small items needed from the Quilt Show committee chairs to complete this basket and items should be brought to the March 19th Quilt Show meeting.

Cathy Miller spoke about advertising for the Quilt show. FSQ has put an ad in the MD Register; she asked for members with social media accounts to post about the show in March and April. She asked for volunteers to advertise in Senior Centers and any other ideas.

Peggy Weidman reported that the boutique form is on the website under quilt show forms. The registration fee is $5.

Linda Belecki reported that the Silent Auction needs colored pictures and registration is open until the April meeting.

Yard Sale is definitely accepting donations.

Raffle Quilt marketing needs volunteers to take out the quilt to Milltown on March 11, Nimblefingers April 2 and Needlechasers April 9.

Stacy Ross, Quilt Show Challenge Chair reminded members about the “Life’s a Beach” challenge for the show.

The program by Vicki Conley was her wonderful presentation on “Inspired by the Parks”.

The Quiltline – March 2025

The winner of the Door prize was Susan Schwarz.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:30pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Harriet Sheinson, Corresponding Secretary

Registering Vehicles at Asbury

You can scan the QR code below to register your vehicle each day you come to a guild meeting or to our quilt show. Show the person at the gate a screenshot of your registration and you can pass right through. Parking is allowed on the street unless the curb is painted yellow. There is a large parking lot right across the street from the Rosborough Center, where we'll be meeting.

Programs

Stacy Ross and Judy Walsh

In March, we will be meeting at Asbury Methodist Village for the first time - in the community room of the Rosborough building. That's the same building (and room) where we held our 2023 Quilt Show. The staff at the gate can direct you to the building if you need assistance finding it. The address is 301 Odendhal Ave, Gaithersburg.

At our March meeting, Sammie Hatton will deliver a presentation titled Historical Quilts of Montgomery County. As the Collections Manager for the Montgomery County Historical Society, Sammie will share historical quilts within the society's collection. While some quilts date back to the 1800s, all are being preserved for future generations.

In April we'll be treated to Elizabeth Lee's lecture and trunk show, which will showcase many of the "Playful Portraits" she has created. She will also share her process from inspiration through the finished products.

REMINDER!

We need 1 more volunteer to become a Program co-chair after our term is up May 31st. We've started contacting potential speakers for our 2025-26 business year. You'll be ahead of the game if you start to shadow some of this process now. Please contact Stacy and Judy at programs@friendshipstar.org with questions or if you are willing to share this position with another member.

As always, we welcome suggestions for new speakers from our members!

Happy St. Patrick's Day

Lot's of laughter to cheer you,
and those you love near you.

Service Projects Update

Nance Brennan and Anne Weaver

Though the weather in February was really cold and a bit snowy, we were able to finish and deliver 30 child-sized quilts and 20 preemie quilts to Project Linus. They were very grateful.

Thanks to all of you and also to those who attended the guild retreat for helping us provide warmth and comfort to babies and children in our community

The quilt show is coming up soon. In addition to bringing your donations for the yard sale to the guild meeting on March 3rd, you can also drop them off at the March Service Projects meetings. We will be meeting from 9:30 am until noon on Thursday, March 13th and Thursday, March 27th, at Fairhaven United Methodist Church, 12801 Darnestown Road (Route 28), a mile from Quince Orchard High School.

For more information, contact Nance Brennan or Anne Weaver. Thanks, as always, for your support.

Will You Step Up and Help Your Guild?

Please answer the call and agree to become a co-chair of the Programs Committee!

The new co-chairs will receive detailed documentation explaining all phases of this position, and current co-chairs Stacy Ross and Judy Walsh will be available to answer your questions and help you be successful.

Feel free to reach out to Stacy or Judy at programs@friendshipstar.org if you'd like more information or are willing to become a co-chair!

2025 ANNUAL RETREAT AT BON SECOURS

FEBRUARY 14-17, 2025

Our 2025 Annual Retreat is now over. Thank you to all who participated to make it a huge success.

In spite of the cold and blustery wind, 27 determined quilters came to spend a creative weekend sewing and sharing. Many striking quilt tops and other sewing projects were completed throughout the weekend. The atmosphere was so positive and encouraging, with quilters sharing their knowledge and expertise, offering opinions when asked, and being supportive of all of the creativity flowing in the room. We all had a great time.

We did have an extra bit of excitement when a windstorm toppled a tree onto a power line and left us in the dark in the early hours of Monday morning. Waking up to darkness in our rooms was a little disconcerting, but our morning was saved by two heroes. Carmen C. and Barb V. braved the freezing wind to run down to Dunkin Donuts and get us a big Box O'Coffee. The kitchen staff also managed to provide a delicious breakfast so that no one had to go hungry. When the power finally came back on, the sound of sewing machines was music to our ears.

We hope that all of this entices you to join us next year when the 2026 FSQ Retreat will again be held at Bon Secours during President's Weekend, February 13-16, 2026. Registration for next year's retreat will open on August 1, 2025.

Photos from this year's retreat are on the FSQ website. Please follow the link below to have a look. A big thanks to Elaine Villforth and Stacy Ross, who took most of the photos.

Please email any questions or comments to retreats@friendshipstar.org

Quilt Show Publicity

Cathy Miller

The success of our show will depend on getting out our information about the show. I have contacted Tommy McFly (an NBC Washington DC TV host, event emcee and host of the Walk a Mile podcast), who may include something on his show. We placed an ad in the Maryland Register, we are distributing flyers to senior centers throughout Montgomery County, and we will be posting on our Facebook page. Please distribute the flyers to businesses, clubs, etc. Contact Cathy Miller (cat9mil13@comcast.net) with further suggestions or questions.

We need our members to also spread the word by mouth and on social media. Please start posting our flyer and any other information to your pages on social media. Please post on your page on NextDoor, Instagram, Facebook, Pinterest, Patches, etc. Start posting early and often and include it as an event. The more members who post, the better. Please use our flyer and a link to our webpage at <https://friendshipstar.org/quilt-show-2025/> in your post.

We believe that NextDoor will be most effective because it is very local to your neighborhood. If you are not yet on NextDoor, go to www.NextDoor.com, enter your email address, choose a password, enter your full name and residential address and click continue. NextDoor is securely encrypted and you can control how your name appears to maintain some anonymity. After the show you can delete your account if you desire. Besides posting on the News Feed page, you can post an event on NextDoor and add our flyer.

Help us spread the word to have a great show.

Quilt Show Raffle Baskets Elaine Villforth and Heidi Oestreicher

Hi, Heidi and I need your help with the raffle baskets.

We will be collecting at the March & April guild meeting and at the Service Projects March meetings.

We are looking for the following things:

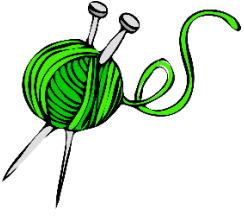

1. There is no convenience store to buy a wide number of snacks at Asbury. For the people that don't drive and are limited to what is on the Asbury campus, this is frustrating. I thought we should have a "snack attack" raffle basket. We need candy bars, bags of chips and any other snacky things.
2. We also need material for the raffle baskets. Fat quarters of solid colors, batiks, modern fabrics, or prints.
3. We need things for our tea basket. Mugs, Cookies, teas and any other tea teamed items will help to fill out the basket. We have tea strainers.
4. We need something to flush out the garden basket. I have garden tools and a garden bag.
5. We have Asian fabric to make a basket, but it needs more than just fabric. If you can think of something to compliment the material – that will help flush out the basket.
6. Chocolate is always good to flush out baskets.

I will be posting some examples of the baskets on Facebook. Any questions, contact Heidi Oestreicher and Elaine Villforth.

Quilt Show Boutique

Peggy Weidman and Barbara VanDenBerg

Our first in-person meeting of the year is coming up! This will be a perfect opportunity for you to turn in your Boutique registration and fee!

You don't need to have your goodies ready yet, just the serious intension to participate in the Boutique.

There will be a table in the back of the meeting room where you can drop off your registration before the meeting.

See you there!

Peggy Weidman and Barbara Vandenburg
Co-chairs.

Quilt Show Silent Auction

Linda Belecki and Jane Phillips

We will be accepting registration forms at the March 3 and April 7 in-person FSQ meetings as well as at Service Projects on March 13 and 27. The Guideline/Registration form is in fillable format on our website.

Quilt Show Guild Challenge

Stacy Ross

“Life’s a Beach!”

The countdown is on for our quilt show next month, and we are hoping to see lots of entries in our beach-themed quilt challenge!

As a reminder, the finished quilt should be between 20-25 inches on each side. (If your project falls a little bit outside of these guidelines, that’s okay – please submit it anyway!) Use the beach theme to inspire you – whether it’s your color palette, your fabric choices, your block design, or your inspiration for a collage or art quilt. Allow the sights and sounds of the beach to ignite your creativity as you work on your quilt!

The entries will be displayed together at the quilt show and will be eligible for Viewer’s Choice prizes in the “Guild Challenge” category. Your quilt will need to be finished in time to turn in for our April 2025 quilt show, but you will need to be ready to submit photos of it by the registration deadline of 6:00 pm on March 15.

We can’t wait to see what everyone comes up with!

Quilt Show Yard Sale

Lorie Coston, Mary Ann Bruce and Carmen Contreras-Sesvold

As we are not meeting in person in February, donation collections will be on hold until the March 2025 meeting.

The Sign-UpGenius list for volunteering is in progress. As this year's sale will be held in a long hallway at Asbury, the sale area will be smaller than in the past and will require fewer volunteers during Quilt Show hours. We will need volunteers, and their vehicles, to retrieve the items stored at Gerda's and to deliver them to Asbury. Help with set-up on Thursday and closing on Sunday are included in the sign up.

Please consider donating the items listed below to the Yard Sale.

Items we accept are:

- Quilting fabric and batting (no upholstery fabric please)
- Quilting patterns (no garment patterns please)
- Books on quilting, published within the last 10 years
- Projects started but not finished/UFOs
- Panels and kits
- Quilting notions (rulers, thread, needles, rotary cutters, etc.)
- Sewing machines or irons in working order

We are accepting donations at:

- Our March 2025 meeting. We will have cars parked by the entrance doors so you can drop your goodies right in.
- Donations may be brought to Service Projects and our volunteers will make sure they are delivered to us.
- Arrangements for large donations can be made by contacting Carmen Contreras-Sesvold. (her information is in the directory)

There will be more details to follow! If you are interested in volunteering with us or have any questions, please consult the directory for our contact information.

Your Yard Sale Co-Chairs,

Lorie Coston, Mary Ann Bruce and Carmen Contreras-Sesvold

Quilt Show Volunteers – We Need You!

Anne Flaggs

Hopefully by now, you have heard we are having a quilt show. We can't pull it off without the guild members volunteering during the show at the various stations to help sell tickets, white glove and do other jobs. There are still lots of jobs and shifts available so checkout Sign-up Genius and scroll through the list of jobs. If you have any questions, please send me an email or give me a call.

This is the link to the Sign-up Genius form for volunteers

<https://www.signupgenius.com/tabs/43073DD0FA4CBE4C60-2025show>

Below is a great list of reasons to volunteer that guild member Ellen Robinson wrote up many Quilt Shows ago but it's still a great reminder of what it means to volunteer.

10 Reasons to Volunteer at the Quilt Show By Ellen Robinson

1. Volunteering gives you the opportunity get into the show for free ALL WEEKEND. (And you get to shop at the boutique - lots of hand-crafted products made by your fellow guild members.)
2. It's fun to volunteer.
3. If you help to set up on Thursday, you get a sneak peek at the quilts ahead of time. Up close and personal.
4. If you volunteer to white glove, you get to touch the quilts, with white gloves on! And you can get your daily 'steps' in.
5. If you sell raffle tickets (quilt, baskets or featherweight), your job is sitting down and you get to meet all sorts of new-to-you people.
6. If you volunteer at the Admissions area, you get to greet every person that comes into the show on your shift.
7. If you volunteer at the Silent Auction, you get to see the articles being auctioned off up close and personal.
8. At service projects on Saturday, you have the opportunity to help show guests who want to make a difference.
9. At show tear down, you again get up-close and personal time with the quilts. (And quilt turn back is not delayed due to not enough volunteers to tear down.)
10. No matter where you volunteer, you get to meet other volunteers. When I was in the guild less than a year and really knew just 2 other people, I volunteered for two 2-hour shifts at admissions. I was amazed at how many guild members I got to meet that way. Many have become good friends of mine.

A True-Blue Quilt for a True-Blue President

Michele Barnard

Friends, our amazing President Anne Flaggs has requested simple blue and white blocks for her president's quilt. A tutorial is below.

I will also have some pre-sewn blocks available at our in-person spring meetings for people to pick up and sign.

ANY blue is acceptable. ANY white is also OK, although - since white-on-white can be difficult to write on - you might want to stick to plain white.

1. Cut a square of blue fabric at least 6 inches on each side and cut it in half diagonally.
2. Cut a strip of white 2 inches by 12 inches

3. Sew the blue triangles to the white strip, centering them on the white so there is some overhang as in the previous photo.

4. Trim the block to 6.5 inches square, centering the white strip.

5. Ta-dah! Your block is ready to sign and turn in!

If you have any questions, just contact me, Michele Barnard.

Library News

Rosie Hormuth and Liz Lawrence

For those members who have been able to attend the in-person Monday evening FSQ meetings, you already know the FSQ Library is closing.

Over recent years we have seen a growing interest in on-line quilting instructions and the availability of a huge variety of free online patterns and projects, leaving little need for a paper library. Additionally, with our move to Asbury Village, there is no space to store our collection.

For these reasons, the remaining books will be offered to you for a small donation. Come see us at the March and April in-person meetings for the final close-out.

If you are in possession of a loaned book and would like to keep it, we will accept financial donations at the Monday guild meetings. Please return to us any books you do not wish to retain.

Thank you for your interest over the years.

Rosie and Liz

Editor's note: Did you know that Rosie and Liz have been caring for our library since 2017?
Be sure to thank them for their many years of service!

Membership

Need a little inspiration to clean up or organize your sewing space? Make a game out of it!

The graphic below is set up like a Bingo card. You can print it out, toss a penny on it, and follow the instructions in the cell where the penny lands.

<https://www.allpeoplequilt.com/how-to-quilt/organization/sewing-organization-bingo>

If it lands on a truly onerous task (like “cut your scraps into usable sizes”), set a timer for 15-30 minutes and “go for it”! Who knows? You might decide to continue working or to “play” more than one round.

Or you could work on a different square each day until you’re happy with the way you’ve organized things.

The options are as simple or as varied as you choose, but the results will be worth it!

A colorful, quilt-themed promotional graphic for 'The Lancaster Quilt Show @ Lebanon Valley'. The graphic is divided into several sections with text. At the top right, it says 'March 26-29 2025' in large black letters, with 'Wed-Sat 9am-4pm' below it. To the right of that, it lists the address: '80 ROCHERTY RD. LEBANON, PA 17042'. In the center, there's a circular logo with a quilt pattern and the text 'The Lancaster Quilt Show @ LEBANON VALLEY'. On the left side, there's a black vertical bar with white text: 'FREE ADMISSION', 'FREE PARKING', 'FREE LECTURES', and 'FREE RAFFLE WORTH OVER $1500'. In the middle, there's an orange section with white text: 'Celebrating 33 years', '55+ VENDORS', '200+ QUILTS', and '55+ CLASSES & LECTURES'. At the bottom, it says 'WWW.THELANCASTERQUILTSHOW.COM' and 'Lebanon, PA' in large white letters on a green background. The entire graphic is decorated with various quilt patterns and colors like green, orange, pink, and black.
